Chapter 1

Read description

Firehearts pov
I patted through the woods headed for sunning rocks to go talk to silverstream again about her relationship with greystripe. Greystripe of course was with me, walking next to me side by side going at the same pace I couldn't help stop thinking about my dream with spotted leaf

Flash back
Still Firehearts pov
I walked into thunder clan but it wasn't the same, everything was... Better
The deep snow had melted and was replaced with fresh green grass, splattered with daisies. Also that nobody was around it was only me. I then felt a presence behind me, I turned around and saw spotted leaf at my side, I was going to say something but she quickly stole my words. Fireheart she said, thunder clan will go into a great battle. One that wil hurt the ones you love but that can be stopped.... Welcome the prophecy of FastPaw.I sat there paralyzed by her words, but what do you mean, I mewed?! Fireheart you have to go, now!! She spat. But spotted lea.... Go!!!!!! She replied.

Ok done with flash back
Still Firehearts pov
I shook the thought out of my head but as soon after greystripe had me pinned down. What was that for?! I spat. Shh there is an intruder in our territory, he hissed. Who? Kittypet.....

Chapter 2

Fireheart froze, was it princess? Had she really gone this far into the woods? He asked himself. Fireheart and greystripe stood there in complete silence as the bush across from them swooshed back and forth. All if a sudden a grey blur leaped out from the bushes and leaped on fireheart, fireheart himself had not seen this coming so he was unprepared. The cat scratched at his ear and fireheart struggled but ended up on his back, his belly showing, the cat took no hesitation as it scratched deep into Firehearts chest as he gave a bloodcurdling yowl. In a flash greystripe had flung himself at the cat and knocked her into a tree and she fell down into the forest floor, where it layed there, not moving. They looked at each other and hesitated before going to look at his attacker. Fireheart stood next to the heap of grey fur as he was about to touch it, it had leaped up and stood on All fours and had looked him right in the eyes, fireheart saw no fear, only anger. The she cat then stood there, hissing at fireheart.

Chapter 3

Firehearts pov

She hissed in my face and I took a paw step back, this she cat was a Kittypet that was highly skilled and had already drawn blood to his right ear without him even having a chance to think about fighting back. Who are you?! I hissed at her angrily. My name is strike. She had hissed back. Well why are you in our territory in the woods, Kittypet?! I had responded. I chocked on the words Kittypet, it felt weird insulting a cat which is also a statement directed at me too. Greystripe saw this and took over talking
Greystripes pov

I saw this look in Firehearts eyes and decided to take over.
The she cat glared at fireheart and mewed, hunting. I hissed at her, don't you know this is thunder clan territory! Oh, you don't know about the... I know about the clans!!! She had interrupted. My mother had told me about it, she had heard about it from a rogue cat. I see, I answered. Come with us, thunder clan needs warriors. Would you want to join thunder clan? Yes!!! She jumped in excitement. Ok well we would have to ask our leader bluestar. Alright, she answered. Me and fireheart turned around and walked toward camp, strike soon following.

Firehearts pov

As we walked into our camp, all heads were turned our way. They must have smelled Kittypet, I thought. When bluestar soon noticed this, she jumped off of high rock and padded toward us fireheart, greystripe what is the meaning of this? She questioned. I checked her eyes, only confusion I saw. I gave a sigh of relief, she wasn't mad. Well, I started... This Kittypet here was in thunder clan territory and had attacked me, I looked at my ear. I had soon got her off and we had asked her why she was in here. She was hunting, I was going to tell her about the clans but she had already known. Greystripe put in. I continued, yes, greystripe knowing thunder clan asked her about joining thunder clan and she had accepted, but we then told her that we needed an acception from you before you were actually taken in. And here we are now! Bluestar nodded, thunderclan does need warriors let me ask the clan. Thunder clan! She shouted, would you accept this Kittypet into thunderclan?! Yes! Sandstorm blurted out, anyone who can take on fireheart bravingly would make a fine warrior, aspeccially when they are anything like fireheart. Strike flicked her tail in amusement. A bunch of other cats agreed with sandstorm and there was only a paw full of no's. Ok, the decision has been made! Bluestar shouted. Strike will join thunderclan! My tail flicked in ecxitment, I would finally have a Kittypet in the clan that is around my age in moons.

Chapter 4

Strikes pov
It soon became "moon high" from what thunder clan has told me and they are being actually really nice, but like bluestar said a bunch aren't- snarling at me and calling me names- just from 30 minutes of being in the camp! Finally bluestar had called everyone to high rock were she gave an announcement. She motioned a tail at me for me to come up. I slowly padded toward highrock and leaped on. Every cat! She shouted, every head in the clan turned to her as she talked, cats of thunder clan! We heave decided that this Kittypet to join our clan! This Kittypets name will be FastPaw!!! Every cat in the clan cheered her name, even the ones who had not liked her. Fast paw, FastPaw FastPaw!!! I jumped off highrock and turned toward fireheart. He was staring at me in happiness. Why are you so happy? I exclaimed. He then shook his head and looked at me, i knew you would be happy here! I blushed under my fur I felt weird about him I guess. As I walked over to the apprentice den immediately all eyes were on me because I was huge. I was about the size of a full grown warrior. I ignored them and curled up and went to sleep, star clan staring over thunder clan tonight.

Firehearts pov
I opened my eyes as sandstorm shook me and I imedeantly jumped to my paws not knowing what was happening, relaxed jumpy it's me! She hissed. You were asleep for a long time it's almost mid day go and get your fresh kill, it's almost gone. As I walked out of the den I was greeted by FastPaw . Hmm I feel like there is something up with that name. I can't quite put my paw on it though. I was greeted by FastPaw with a smile on her soft grey face. Good morning fireheart!!! She mewed, already out of her sleeping stage of the day. Good morning FastPaw. I answered. All cats old enough to catch there own prey meet at highrock! I heard shout. I walked up to highrock but FastPaw was already darting toward it. Oh yeah she is giving her an apprentice. As I sat below highrock bluestar was already beginning her speech. FastPaw!!! Your mentor will be fireheart! I found to my attention that fireheart understands your Kittypet roots do I found it obvious that fireheart will be your mentor. A spark flicked in her eyes as she heard that and I smiled. I knew I was going to have a great time mentoring her.

Chapter 5

I woke at the apprentice den, tired but excited to finally be being apprenticed my fireheart.

Up FastPaw, come on! He mewed. And I quickly followed him out of the camp. Once we were at the training hollow he stopped and faced me. Attack me, he hissed. I did and I ran up to him as fast as I could and aimed my front paws toward his chest, he imedeantly took notice and batted them away. To predictable, try again. I backed away, trying again and running as fast as my paws could carry me and his eyes were flickered in shock. I quickly used his distraction as an advantage and pounced on him from behind. Digging my claws into his pelt and biting down hard on his shoulder. He was shocked but after a couple of seconds of biting him, he through me off, hitting the ground with a hard " thud". The wind was knocked out of me and I let out a painful yowl. My stomach felt twisted on my right side. I looked at fireheart. He fumbled up and saw me on the ground. He quickly looked over to me, his eyes filled with sadness. I am do sorry, he mewed. No more practice for today, u have to see cinder pelt and yellowfang.

As we got back to camp, fireheart was holding me by my scruff since it hurt to walk. Yellowfang bounced up and yowled at cinder pelt, Get some mingle leaves! He placed me down in the medicine den, licked my ear and mewed so sorry before walking out of the den.

Firehearts pov-
I cursed at myself. I went to hard on her! Just because she had actually hurt you badly does not mean u have to almost hurt her badly too! Fireheart! The voice was bluestars and I padded over to her den. As I walked in the den she ordered me to sit down. Now fireheart, tell me what happened wih you and FastPaw. Then, all of a sudden. My dream with spotted leaf came back to me. FastPaw, I whispered.
